Marketing/Social Media
Duration: May – August (dates and times are flexible)
Hourly Rate: $12/hr
Application Deadline: May 1

The marketing/social media internship works with the LUAG Staff to plan, create, and design content for the LUAG social media channels. Interns will assist with other administrative tasks/projects to support LUAG’s marketing and programming needs.

Interns will perform a combination of research, writing, and administrative duties which may include researching art objects and artists within the LUAG’s permanent collection, assisting with special projects, additional research, audience analysis, and other projects as needed. Interns should be friendly, energetic, highly motivated, and creative.
