INGREDIENTS

- 2lb Batata (White Sweet Potato or Orange Sweet Potato)
- 3/4c chickpea flour
- 1c Full Fat Coconut milk (can)
- 1 1/2c whole milk (sub soy milk for vegan)
- 4 eggs
- 2c Brown Sugar
- 1c unsweetened coconut flakes, fine
- 1 TBS freshly grated ginger
- 1 TBS Cinnamon
- 1 tsp black pepper
- 1/2 tsp nutmeg
- 1/2 tsp allspice
- 1/4 tsp clove
- 1 tsp salt
- 1 stick butter
- 9x5 bread pan or any vessel you have available to bake with
- nonstick spray

1. Preheat oven to 350
2. In a saucepan, heat coconut milk, whole milk, butter and spices on medium for about 7-10 minutes.
   We are looking for a slow simmer/a gentle rolling boil
3. (Turn off burner after 10 - 12 minutes)
4. While the milk is heating, peel and grate your sweet potatoes. A food processor works great here or this can also be done with a hand grater - small/medium sized.
5. Whisk sugar, eggs, coconut flakes, chickpea flour and batata together
6. Once the milk mixture isn’t scorching hot, slow stream into the sugar, egg and batata mixture, whisking constantly as you slow stream.
7. Line your bread pan with parchment paper or spray with nonstick spray
8. Pour your combined mixture into your baking vessel and bake for 40-50 minutes or until the top is browned and the batter is thoroughly cooked.
9. The End!

Equipment needed:
9"x5" bread pan or any vessel you have available to bake with, medium saucepan, peeler, hand grater or food processor, whisk, large bowl, stirring spoon, knife, parchment paper
